Dani Bischoff – that's where it comes from - music & lyrics dani bischoff easily without you

I need my coffee in the morning to get awake, I need a glass of water to take my pills every day, I enjoy a walk with my dogs when the sun shines, a need little bit of workout from time to time, but I can easily do without your nonsense, that you give of yourself all day

I love to be on stage in front of a crowd, I like to hear my guitar a bit loud, I need to be surrounded by love every day, I need feedback people that mean what they say, but I can easily do without your nonsense, that you give of yourself all day see there is a lot that I really need, and I wouldn't like to live without these but I guess you figured it out yourself, your bullshit is not what I need

Blues for Life

my uncle's basement, greatest place on earth, giant speakers, huge stereo, I heard Albert, who made his guitar scream, this kinda music, ain't on radio blues for life, you can join any time, it will never ever let you down, it's made for a lifetime had this soccer coach, when I was 9 or 10, he got a beetle, an old dented car, he turned up the volume, so loud, the whole car shook, we though it falls a apart in the 80s, when blues was hip again, I could finally see them, live on stage, I saw Garry Moore and Robert Cray, BB King and Steve Ray after all these years, these few chords, I love to play, I'm still standing here, it carries me, through tough times, well what shall I say, I'm fine blues for life, you can join any time, it will never ever let you go it's made for a lifetime

Morning Sun

you're still afraid you say, to rush in something new, you say you're fine, you just need a bit of time please stay till the morning sun, tells you the night is over, don't leave me now, this does not have to end unspoken words, can be painful too, we are sitting here no one speaks out the truth

don't you feel it, this can't be wrong, can't you see, my inner tears, can't you hear, my longing whispers, please, please, stay till the morning sun

Eddie

Just a few blocks, that's what we have been told, It was raining and suddenly we got lost A weird guy, was watching us, It was quite scary he just said get off, lucky we, a cap came down the street

Eddie, this is the bamboostreet, Eddie, what are you doing in this bad neighborhood?

strange people in a strange part of town, man on the street said, you do not belong here, right, we did not, start to discuss, cause he looked like, he ain't talk too much get in my car I take you outa here we were so glad, that Eddie's cap came along

Bad habits

I wake up every morning, when your hairdryer falls to the bottom of the bathroom we gotta go, but you can't find your keys, even when you break the dishes, I do not say one word when you paint a picture, you paint the whole room, when you write, I can see every color on your finger, your telephone calls are long and loud, all your bad habits, makes me just love you more

It's shaking like an earthquake, when you jump in the bed babe, every time you cook you burn your hand, you getting crabby if we are at home for one day, all your bad habits, makes me just love you more

Get my pre baby body back

I was so young when I first met her, all my friends have envied me , she gave birth to our first daughter, for the first time I heard her say

I want my pre baby body back, I want to look the way I used to look well, I knew right then, we are talking about money here, she said, don't worry 'bout little treatments, It's gonna look naturally, you will see

I want my pre baby body back, I want to look the way I used to look fillers, grafts, injections, implants and laser treatments too, breast, neck and facelift, I learned a lot about cosmetic surgery, well there is no money left, she still don't have her pre baby body back now I got a brand-new wife, with no wrinkles and puffy lips, and every morning I see a plastic smile, no idea who that is

Valentina

we all looked up to her, she had more experience for sure, she was out of reach, she was more mature, she was always one step ahead, think about her makes me sad she had already seen it all, and paid a very high price, it was not worth it at all, she deserved a longer life, she was always one step ahead, think about her makes me sad

Valentina it was over before it began, your path ended way to fast her friends already finished school, they seemed to be free, they were really cool, the way we wanted to be, she was always one step ahead, think about her makes me sad

I'll never forget that one dance, she didn't let me feel, that I was not yet a man she was always one step ahead, think about her still makes me still makes me sad

Swamp

there is this run-down house, down south, it has no heating, and no pool outside no one wants to live there, no jobs around, in this god forgotten town, there is no easy life nothing else to do, but playing the guitar, in the middle of the swamp the sun slowly fades, and let the moon shine, beautiful trees, surrounding the scene
